1:30pm - 3pm

Early-stage social engagement and visual art experiences for individuals living with cognitive decline or dementia and their families.

Art in the Moment is a monthly program to promote connection and companionship for individuals living with early-stage memory loss and their care partners through art. Entering its sixth year, the Missoula Art Museum is partnering with the Alzheimer's Association to provide the program in person. This interactive art program will allow participants to engage with others while viewing and creating original works of art with the Missoula Art Museum's Curator of Education, Kay Grissom-Kiely and professional teaching artist, Bev Beck Glueckert.

No cost to participate. Please register in advance. Call 406.318.8242 or email montana@alz.org to register.
